

JENNIFER B. DOE

1902 Laurel Avenue
Knoxville, TN 37916
(865) 555-5555
jdoe@rightmail.com

CAREER OBJECTIVE: Staff Nursing position in Adult Oncology. Long-term goal of Clinical Specialist.

EDUCATION: B.S. in Nursing, University of Tennessee, Knoxville May 2010 GPA: 3.2/4.0

CLINICAL EXPERIENCE:

Student. University of Tennessee Medical Center, Knoxville. Completed elective in Pediatrics with focus on Oncology patients in addition to clinical rotations. 2009-present.

Extern. Oncology, University of Tennessee Medical Center, Knoxville. Facilitated small family/patient support groups in addition to administering patient care. Initiated special project on "Symptoms of Immediate Acute Psychological Crisis in Patients Receiving Port Implants," and presented summary to nursing staff. Summer 2008.

OTHER EXPERIENCE:

Student Worker. Career Services, University of Tennessee, Knoxville. Assist students in the Career Resource Center. August 2006-Present

Waitress. Cracker Barrel Restaurant, Clarksville, TN. Provided excellent customer service in a friendly and efficient manner. School vacations 2006-2008

Unit Secretary. Oncology, University of Tennessee Medical Center, Knoxville. Invited to attend selected programs involving medical treatment and/or nursing care of Oncology patients. Summer 2007

COMMUNITY SERVICE:

The Wellness Community, Knoxville, TN. Organize and help facilitate small groups of cancer survivors for programs including relaxation, visualization, and biofeedback. April 2008-Present

Ronald McDonald House, Knoxville, TN. Provided support to families. Trained high school and college volunteers for special service projects. Sept. 2008-May 2009

HONORS/ACTIVITIES:

Tennessee Association of Student Nurses, 2007-Present

National Student Nurses Association, 2007-Present, President 2009-present

Tennessee Valley Oncology Association, attended various meetings as guest, 2007-Present

Susan Moellar Scholarship; awarded to a senior student with a GPA of 3.0 or better in all nursing courses, 2009