Data Analysis Assistant; Part-time Student Position
Center for Career Development
The University of Tennessee, Knoxville

Position Duration: Summer 2019, beginning May 20th (some flexibility with start date)

Number of Work Hours per Week: 10-15

Summary:
The Center for Career Development Data Analysis Assistant will analyze data collected by the CCD to find trends among student users and the impact of the center on their career outcomes.

Responsibilities:
- Analyze career outcomes/first destination data to find trends, e.g., impact of GPA or internship on outcome and salary
- Analyze CCD student user data and its impact on career outcomes
- Analyze student needs assessment results by college, classification and student demographics to find trends and make recommendations to staff
- Analyze student demographic data to help center better understand its student users and set goals for future usage
- Clean data where necessary
- Create charts, reports and presentations to organize and display the data utilizing Tableau and other technologies; Present data to staff and other constituents
- Work with graphic design assistant to create infographics and other visually appealing pieces
- Assist in the collection of first destination data for Class of 2019
- Assist with other assessment projects

Skills:
Through these responsibilities the Data Analysis Assistant will gain a number of career competencies including:
Critical Thinking/Problem Solving – Choose methods of data analysis, find trends in data, and make recommendations
Oral/Written Communications – Arthur reports summarizing data and present data to staff
Digital Technology – Utilize multiple systems and software to analyze and display data
Teamwork/Collaboration – Work with CCD staff in a variety of functional areas
Career Management – Gain relevant experience and learn how to articulate experience to future employers
Professionalism/Work Ethic – Hone the ability to work independently and manage projects

Qualifications:
Must be a current UTK student. Prefer majors in business analytics, statistics, or other majors with relevant experience; Helpful to have a course in regression models such as Business Analytics 320 or understanding of R Studio software; Minimum 2.8 GPA; High level of skill with Excel and ability to learn other technologies such as Handshake and 12Twenty; Familiarity with Tableau; Demonstrated organizational and leadership skills; Strong interpersonal and communication skills are essential as is the ability to work independently and meet deadlines.

To Apply: Submit a resume and cover letter to smkit@utk.edu

Application deadline: April 15, 2019

Salary: $9.00/hour